In Memoriam

In remembrance of my brother, Jesse Kelly, who died March 24, 1921.

Around the throne of God above,
Thousands of children stand;
Children whose hearts are full of love
A happy, jolly band.

Dear little Jesse we shall miss you,
There will be one vacant chair;
We shall linger to caress you,
When we breathe our evening prayer.

At our fireside sad and lonely,
Often will the bosom swell;
As we think of little Jesse
The one we loved so well.

True, they tell us, wreaths of glory,
Ever more shall deck your brow;
But this soothes the anguish only,
Swelling o'er our heartstrings now.

Sleep today, Oh early fallen,
In thy green and narrow bed;
Bridges from the pine and cypress,
Mingle with the tears we shed.

—Lena B. Kelly.

RANKINS' FAILURE PROVES QUITE HEAVY

The Danville Advocate had the following about the failure of a family in that section, several of whom are well known here:

Four bankruptcy petitions in which the aggregate liabilities are $943,896, were filed in United States district court at Covington by Robert Rankin and sons, of Danville, farmers, in partnership, and by Robert Rankin and two sons individually.

The schedule shows the assets of the partnership to be $172,345 and the liabilities $205,599.09. Robert Rankin listed his individual assets at $77,002 and his liabilities at $251,410.57. Daniel F. Rankin's schedule showed assets of $146,635 and liabilities aggregating $257,450.31. Charles F. Rankin listed his assets at $56,860 and liabilities at $229,117.62.

There are no finer people in Kentucky than this sterling family of Rankin. They are of Scotch descent. They came to the Blue Grass region from Wayne county several years ago following that eversteady stream of migration to this section. They made both friends and money here—they brought money with them. They brought honor and integrity with them also and since their residence here have made countless friends who will read with deep regret of this debacle in their financial affairs, and who will hope they will be able to come again. The Rankin family is primarily a farming family. They selected fine farms in this region and were known to rank as top-notch farmers; men of high moral and financial standing; splendid neighbors and upright citizens. They were large tobacco growers and had been mule traders for years, even before they came to Boyle county. That they will recoup their fortunes no one will doubt who knows them.

HAMILTON BROS.

A Real Fish. This

This is no April Fool fish story. A big cat was caught just under the dam at Boonesboro by John Walters and Philip Gentry. Mr. Roberts entertained a crowd of fishermen nearly all day Saturday who went to his stable on Third street to see a channel cat that weighed just about 65 meat, too. This one is the largest caught out of the river in a long time.
